

Describing Your Weekend Using When and While

Part A. Directions: In the box below, write 3 sentences using when or while to describe things that happened at the same time.

For example: My husband turned off the front light when he came home.

1.

2.

3.

Part B. Directions: Now write a short paragraph about your weekend using one or two when or while sentences.

For example: My family was very busy on Saturday. In the morning, my husband fixed our car. When the car was fixed, I went to the grocery store. While I was at the grocery store, my kids were doing their homework. In the evening, my children watched a movie while my husband and I talked with friends on my cell phone.