On Christmas Eve children put their polished shoes out in front of the chimney and hope that Santa will fill the shoes with sweets.

3

Many churches organize picnics for people on the beach to sing Christmas carols. During Christmas time friends and family often gather at the beach.

On Christmas morning families eat rice porridge. They put cinnamon, milk or butter on the top and hide the almond inside. The one who finds it is the "winner".

5

Children leave carrots for Santa Clause horse. They believe if they do it he will bring them sweets.

6

Families make cookie baking parties. They meet with friends, bring their favorite recipes, bake cookies and then exchange them with each other.

Parents hide the glass Christmas pickle ornament on a Christmas tree. On Christmas morning the first child who finds the pickle gets an extra present.

People exchange apples wrapped in colored paper with neighbors and friends. They believe it's a symbol of good luck.
