

Working as an office clerk

If you are going to work in the business world, here follow some of the advantages of being an office clerk:

- You work inside, in a usually pleasant environment
- You get a fixed salary
- Your working hours are fixed
- Promotion prospects are possible
- You can enjoy free weekends
- You feel creative
- Initiative is needed

Are you interested? If so, you should bare in mind the following:

- You should have the ability to write clearly expressed and logically argued reports in English. Writing reports as well as letters, telex messages and memoranda, talking to a client or a visitor and telephoning can be difficult tasks
- You should also be polite, efficient, willing to help, sociable, hard-working, intelligent and elegant
- You should speak at least one foreign language fluently and clearly
