Last year I learnt Spanish in Barcelona. Spain is an _____ country and I enjoyed my time there very much. My flatmates were two girls from Germany. They were nice but _____ was a real problem for us because I didn't speak German and they didn't speak English, my first language. Sometimes we felt absolutely _____ because we were not able to understand each other. However, it gave us additional motivation to learn Spanish! Very soon my teacher told me that I was speaking it _____. He was happy with my progress. My flatmates' grades were _____ too! It proved that practice is very important and if you want to speak a foreign language like a native _____, you should practise it a lot.	AMAZE

At school, writing essays was a real problem for me, and my grades were always low. _____ enough, I didn't like writing and tried to avoid writing lessons at all costs. I thought I didn't have enough _____ for any kind of writing. I only understood what my problem was after school. In a _____ journal I saw an article about children's writing problems. The author claimed that anyone could become a good _____ if they learned some rules. I read and reread the article several times. Then I tried to use the information in practice. I have never become a professional journalist but from time to time I publish some pieces of my _____ writing on my blog. My friends find these essays and stories very _____.	NATURAL
