

Grade 10

Lesson 1 Production

1) Drag the elements of production into the correct places

2) Write the elements of production

- The resources needed to begin the production process

- The finished products or services at the end of the production process

- The difference between the selling price of a product and the cost of the materials used to make it
A _____ V _____

