

GOOD LUCK!

Task 1 Complete the sentences with the correct words:

1. When Beth opened the bottle of milk, she was put off by its r_ n _ _ d smell. She immediately poured the contents into the sink.
2. The city inhabitants have been al_ _ _ ed to the fact that in the next few days they are likely to have difficulty getting around the city due to the bus drivers' strike.
3. She made a mistake despite the fact that she always checks all the calculations ass_ _ u_ _ sly.
4. What discourages me from using public transport more often is the st_ _ _ smell of the passengers' sweaty bodies.
5. Her medical condition is c_ ng_ _ _ t_ l and therefore more difficult to be treated.
6. The basement wouldn't have got m_ st_ if you had aired it more often. We now have to throw all these things away; the smell is unbearable!
7. The boy's i_ s _ t _ ab _ _ curiosity makes him a perfect pupil.
8. I carried out a street survey to c_ m_ i _ _ the information.
9. With very little funding available, we need to think of a more c_ _ _ -ef_ _ _ ti _ _ method of gathering information.
10. This politician is famous for the short and p_ th _ responses he gives while being interviewed.
11. Some people believe hoardings add a touch of colour to d_ _ b urban landscapes.
12. These drops will help to unblock your n_ s_ _ passages.
13. I have always s_ bs_ _ _ bed to the claim that 'A friend in need is a friend indeed.'
14. We often r_ m_ n_ _ c_ about the past during our family gatherings.
15. Crime and poverty are i_ ex_ _ _ c_ _ l_ linked.

Task 2 Form new words out of the words in brackets:

1. A perfect teacher is demanding, yet (APPROACH)
2. These laws are to the EU citizens only. (APPLY)
3. It would be to ignore his request. (COURTESY)
4. If you want to apply for this position, you need to have good skills. (MANAGE)
5. The document requires changes, I'm afraid. (SUBSTANCE)
6. You have all given me pieces of advice. I really don't know what to do now. (CONTRADICT)
7. I wouldn't comment on his highly remark. (PROVOKE)
8. Your report contains a few that need to be rectified. (ACCURATE)

9. I'm afraid your excuse doesn't sound (BELIEVE)
10. Before their A-levels, the students were given a course.
(PREPARE)
11. For no reason, he withdrew his support. (APPEAR)
12. Surprisingly, this building in the city centre, a relic of the communist era, is of the main tourist attractions. (MONSTER)

Task 3 Write the verbs in brackets in the correct form:

1. I wish the papers (stop) reporting nothing but bad news. It really gets me down.
2. It's high time you (start) taking more responsibility for your education.
3. If only I (realise) the job was going to be so difficult! I would never have accepted it!
4. I'd rather you (take) the bus every day instead of driving.
5. I would like to (visit) you when I was in Warsaw, but I was really pressed for time.
6. She'd sooner (speak) directly to the head of school. The secretary was unable to sort out the problem.
7. We'd rather you (not/ give) up so easily. We're sure you can do it! The exam isn't going to be that difficult!
8. I'd rather you (not/ share) the information with anyone. You knew it was strictly confidential!
9. I wish my neighbour (not/wear) high heels at home. The noise is so annoying!

Task 4 Transform the sentences using between 3 and 6 words, including the word in capital letters:

1. A lot of people resent having to pay so much tax./ WISH
A lot of people to pay so much tax.
2. I don't want to hear every single thing that happened in the meeting./ YOU
I'd rather me every single thing that happened in the meeting.
3. It's a pity I was so careless and ignorant in my youth./ HAD
I so careless and ignorant in my youth.
4. Instead of going on a diet, you should take some exercise./ SOONER
I some exercise than go on a diet.
5. You were not supposed to tell anyone about my news!/ SECRET
I'd rather instead of telling everyone!
6. Having a holiday together was a mistake because we argued all the time./ NEVER
I wish on holiday together because we argued all the time.