Last weekend we went to the beach to celebrate my birthday .                    it wasn't sunny and hot, we decided to go anyway                    we were looking forward to visit the sea                    we wanted to get relaxed. On Sunday noon, we had a big and tasty barbecue                    at the end of the lunch it started to rain,                    we had to cover ourselves under a bunch of umbrellas. It was really fun!
