

Put each verb in brackets into a suitable verb form.

1. In seven days' time, she _____ (relax) on her coach.
2. By the time you get back, your sister _____ (leave).
3. What _____ you _____ (do) tomorrow morning?
4. By the end of this year, I _____ (finish) my research project.
5. A Decca Recording studio manager thought promoting The Beatles _____ (be) worthless, but in fact they became one of the most influential bands of all time.
6. In two years' time, all students who are now at high school fourth grade _____ (study) at college or at a higher institute.
7. Ken Olson, the founder of Digital Equipment Corp. said there was no reason anyone _____ (want) a computer in their home. He was very much mistaken.
8. By the end of the week, I _____ (decide) what to do.
9. Over the next century, robots _____ (replace) workers on their day to day job in most of the factories.
10. By 2050, polar bears _____ (disappear) due to global warming effects according to scientists.

MIXED TENSES

Read the text then choose the correct option to complete it. Write the letter in the blank.

By July next year, we (1.) _____ for a new president. He (2.) _____ office from July on and (3.) _____ a country with many issues. Hopefully, if he really is prepared with a good plan, we (4.) _____ over the inconveniences our country has been going through and the priorities (5.) _____ by the end of the next year.

Two years ago, nobody (6.) _____ the changes we were forced to make. However, we (7.) _____ ourselves with the measures that the government in power had decided to take. Despite the obedience of most of the population, the pandemic raged without control. Like many countries, the outcomes (8.) _____ many people not only financially but emotionally and even rationally. In addition, crime, violence, and protests (9.) _____. So, what does it take to be a great president? To me, the answer is ethics and selflessness as important traits as well as the skill to deal with loads of responsibilities and the willingness to achieve goals. I really hope we (10.) _____ the lesson and (11.) _____ to narrow down our candidate options and thoroughly think of who our next president and the cabinet government should be for the next five years.

- | | |
|--------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. a. will have voted | b. will vote |
| 2. a. will be taking | b. will have taken |
| 3. a. will inherit | b. will be inheriting |
| 4. a. will have gotten | b. will get |
| 5. a. will have cover | b. will have been covered |
| 6. a. will have expected | b. would have expected |
| 7. a. encountered | b. will encounter |
| 8. a. affected | b. will have affected |
| 9. a. will increase | b. have increased |
| 10. a. will learn | b. have learned |
| 11. a. have started | b. will have started |