Adjectives to express feelings

Use the words in brackets to form words which fit the gaps.

1. After the job interview, Tom was really for his brothers help. (thank)
2. Frankly said, I get when my neighbours play loud music. (annoy)
3. Susan always gets on Christmas eve. (excite)
4. Tom felt when he found out that nobody had been hurt in the accident. (relief)
5. Your jokes are so rude that people may feel by them. (offend)
6. Peter was with the service at the hotel and made a complaint. (satisfy)
7. Mike was so quiet that she became . (suspicion)
8. My friend was to admit that he had lied to me. (shame)
9. Tom is a very man. He always tries to solve the problem as fast as he can. (decide)
10. Many people like Kate because she is a listener. (sympathy)

LIVEWORKSHEETS