

WHO SAID IT?

Part One:

Read the information about the following people.

I study history at the university. My name is Tom.

This is my first day at a new school. My name is Amir.

I am looking for a job. My name is Gili.

I love sports! My name is Ziv.

I am the principal of a school. My name is Mrs. Green.

I work at the theatre. My name is Anne.

My baby son is 3 weeks old. My name is Joseph.

I only eat very healthy food. My name is Kara.

Part Two:

In the sentences below you will see words marked in green. They were written without using spaces.

1. Read every sentence.
2. Rewrite the words with the correct spaces.
3. Write the name of the person.

Use these words:

watch this play / show me how / I can name / shop at the / a long list /
watch me play basketball / show on T.V. / at the new shop

1. Can you showmehow _____ to get to the computer room? I don't know where it is.
My name is _____
2. I don't have time. I have alonglist _____ of books to read this semester.
My name is _____
3. Icanname _____ every student and every teacher in the whole school.
My name is _____
4. Did you watch the new comedy showonT.V. _____ last night? I missed it because the baby was crying.
My name is _____

5. I don't shopatthe _____ supermarket anymore.

I only buy organic food from farms.

My name is _____

6. Only people with tickets can watchthisplay. _____

My name is _____

7. I have good news! I found a job atthenewshop

_____ in the mall!

My name is _____

8. Do you want to watch meplaybasketball _____ tomorrow? I'm really good at it – and we have an important game .

My name is _____

