After Salah Al- Din had brought large parts of the Muslim World, he turned to Jerusalem. The city had been in crusader hands all his life, and from 1182 he started to free it from them. He defeated them at the Battle of Hittin in summer 1187 and that was a great moment for Muslims everywhere. When Richard, King of England, became sick, Salah Al-Din sent him fruit, snow to make cool water, and even his personal doctor. This shows that Salah Al-Din was a leader ahead of his time. He was fair, generous, brave and intelligent. He died in Damascus in 1193..
