

GOOD LUCK!

Task 1 Fill in the gaps with the words from the box:

mixed	obeys	conservation	raises	pack	chop	guarantee	goals
plot	basis	spreads	habitat	inner-city	freely	increased

1. My grandpa, who lives on a farm, cows and hens.
2. I clean my flat thoroughly on a weekly
3. I have feelings about buying a new car now. Do you think we can afford it?
4. Jake is really naughty. He hardly ever his parents.
5. A week spent on a farm was a wholly new experience for those kids.
6. Sheila grows tomatoes and cucumbers on her vegetable
7. We need to some wood for the fire.
8. Bad news quickly, especially online.
9. Animals in the wild can move about, whereas in zoos they are kept in cages.
10. of animal species is of vital concern to this environmental group.
11. A language course in our school will your academic success.
12. A desert is a natural of this type of lizard.
13. The prices of food have rapidly recently.
14. A: What are your for the near future? B: I want to get into a good high school.
15. I saw a of wolves when I was in the mountains last year.

Task 2 Complete the gaps with the correct prepositions:

1. You need to be aware how difficult the job will be.
2. I think you'll benefit greatly a month spent in London. You'll gain more confidence when speaking English.
3. This young environmentalist hopes to get his message to political leaders.
4. Dinosaurs died millions of years ago.
5. People shouldn't cut so many trees.

Task 3 Fill in each gap with 1 grammar word:

1. I'll come as soon I can.
2. The new swimming pool will open in three months'
3. I'm going to learn to drive yet – I am too young.
4. Where you be living next year?
5. What you doing this Sunday?
6. The train due to depart in 10 minutes.
7. I'm quite tired, so I probably stay at home.
8. time tomorrow I'll be relaxing after a busy week at school.
9. Be quiet! The concert is to begin.
10. Do you think it snow at Christmas?

Task 4 Complete the sentences with the correct future form:

1. I'm sorry, I can't talk to you now, but I (call) back later.
2. I (be) likely to have a very busy weekend, but I hope I (get) some rest during our winter holiday.
3. By the time you (receive) this letter, I'll be in New York.
4. It's a great film; I'm sure you (enjoy) it.
5. Dan is going shopping this afternoon. He (buy) some boots.
6. This time next week we (have) our Christmas Eve supper.
Great, isn't it?
7. I (meet) my best friend this evening. I've invited her to my place because I can't wait to hear all about her new job.
8. She'll send you a text when she (find) out her exam result.
9. Watch out! You (spill) orange juice over my white sofa.