

TAGORE INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL
VASANT VIHAR, N. DELHI
ENGLISHWORKSHEET
CLASS-IV

Name: _____ Sec _____ Date: _____

A. Fill in the blanks in the following sentences with can / can't.

- a. "You _____ catch me," said the Gingerbread Man.
- b. "I _____ easily run faster than you," boasted the hare to the tortoise.
- c. How many burgers _____ you eat at one time?
- d. Please help me. I _____ not solve this problem.
- e. Sylvia works with computers. She _____ type very fast.
- f. Marie hasn't got her guitar, so she _____ play tonight. But she _____ sing.

B. Rewrite the following sentences using 'may'. The first one is done as an example.

- a. Perhaps John has our tickets.
John may have our tickets.

- b. Perhaps he doesn't like chocolates.

- c. You want to get another glass of juice. (Hint: Frame a question)

- d. You want to borrow your friend's ring. (Hint: Frame a question)

C. Read the given situations carefully and fill in the blanks with can / may / must / should.

- a. You have forgotten to put on your watch, so you ask somebody the time.
"I'm sorry to bother you, but _____ you please tell me the time?"
- b. We _____ use re-usable bags while shopping. It makes good sense.
- c. An old lady is carrying some heavy bags. You offer to help her.
"Your bags look heavy. _____ I help you carry them?"
- d. Your computer is out of order, you want to borrow your friend's computer.
"David, _____ I borrow your computer for this weekend to complete my project?"
- e. I have been watching television for the last five hours. I _____ switch it off now.
- f. You are at a music concert and your friend is trying to talk to you, but you are not able to understand what he is saying.
"Sorry, I _____ not hear you right now. The music is too loud."
- g. We _____ protect our environment, or our resources will disappear.

NOTE: must/mustn't are stronger than should/shouldn't