

1. What's the name of the boy who whose which bike you borrowed yesterday?
2. Yesterday we visited the Archaeological Museum of Athens, who why which I'd never been to before.
3. The man with who whom which she fell in love left her after a few months.
4. The boy whose which that called said he wanted to speak to Freda.
5. This school is only for children which who whose first language is not Greek.
6. The village when whose where we spent our holidays was really picturesque.
7. The book whom that whose I'm reading at the moment was written by J.K. Rowling.
8. What was the name of the person to whose who whom you spoke on the phone this morning?
9. Is that the reason when who why she got so angry?
10. Mr. Roberts, who whose where lives next door to us, is a pilot. He works for Aegean.
11. Do you remember the day when where why we first met?
12. This is not the reason which when why I called you.
13. The village which whom where they live is quite near Birmingham.
14. I don't know anyone to whose whom who you can sell this old piece of furniture.
15. George Seferis, whose which who was one of the greatest Greek poets, was awarded the Nobel prize for Literature in 1963.
16. The Javan rhinoceros, who whom which is also known as the Sunda rhino, is in danger of extinction.
17. I would love to visit Serbia, when which where my grandmother was born.
18. I was born in 1997, which where when the Pathfinder landed on Mars.
19. There was only one person whom who whose the old woman spoke to.
20. Arabic is a language whom what that I have found hard to learn.
21. Do you know the reason where why who the bank is closed today?
22. It was Mary who which whose Leo gave the keys to. It wasn't me!