

FUTURE TENSES

will-future	going to-future	Simple Present	Present Continuous
A) future actions happen without the speaker's intention B) prediction, assumption C) spontaneous action	D) planned action in the future E) Evident predictions 'something we know'	F) future action is fixed (e.g. timetable)	G) Arrangements: planned actions at a specific time

- Fill the gaps with the correct verb form (Only will/ present continuous)

1. I think Bob _____ the competition. (win)
2. Wait! I _____ you a lift to the station. (give)
3. You're carrying too much weight. I _____ the door for you. (open)
4. I don't think you _____ any problems when you land in New York. (have)
5. I _____ you when I arrive. (call)
6. We _____ our boss at 9 o'clock tomorrow. (meet)
7. It's boiling hot in here. I _____ open a window! (open)
8. My brother _____ football with his friends tonight (play)

- Choose (a, b, c g) which grammar explanation is correct in each sentences

- 1-
- 2-
- 3-
- 4-
- 5.-
- 6-
- 7-
- 8-