A Special Gorilla

There is a zoo in Chicago that has a special gorilla. Her name is Binti. Workers at the zoo fed (האכילו) and took care (דאגו) of Binti when she was young. They trained her with a doll. Now Binti is a mother. She has a baby. She is a very good mother.

Today a little boy named Bob is at the zoo with his mother. Bob is three years old. There are many animals at the zoo. Bob and his mother see many animals. They are tired and sit down to rest. Then Bob sees the gorillas behind a big fence (גדר). He doesn't want to rest anymore.

Suddenly Bob gets up and runs to the gorillas.

He climbs up the fence. Bob's mother runs after him, but she is too late. Bob gets to the top of the fence. He starts to climb down and falls. Bob falls five meters. He lies on the ground and he doesn't move.

Poor Bob is in the gorilla cage. He sees the gorillas.

They are big and scary and Bob is afraid. A big gorilla walks towards (לעבר) him. It is Binti. She is a mother gorilla. She has a baby on her back. Binti picks (מרים) the little boy up. Bob's mother looks at Bob and Binti. She is very afraid. But the gorilla doesn't hurt Bob. She carries him to the door. Binti is a good mother.

Bob is safe.

A worker at the zoo takes him from the Binti. Everyone is very happy. Bob's mother says, "Thank you, Binti! You are a good mother?"
