

p. 66-67

1. Patrick is a(n) [inexperienced / irregular / mature] young doctor.
2. It is [illegal / illogical / impatient] to park here. You have to move your car.
3. This story is [unrealistic / immature / unavailable]. I don't believe it's true.
4. Sandra wanted a(n) [unsuitable / complete / unfair] change in her life, so she moved to the country.
5. Getting angry when things don't go your way is an [immature / unrealistic / unlikely] way to react.
6. The doctor told him that he needed [irresponsible / unfair / regular] exercise.
7. 'Hi' is an (informal / impatient / impolite] way to say 'Hello'.
8. My sister is very [incomplete / fair / mature] for her age.
9. I think this game is [unfair / unsuitable / immature] for children under 6 years old, because it contains small pieces of plastic.
10. It is [likely / unavailable / unlikely] that they will win the game tonight, because the other team is the best in the country.
11. We take water [the wrong way / for granted / seriously] until there is a water shortage.
12. Take it [more / easy / for granted]! Everything is going to be ok!
13. Take [your time / control of / some time off] and think carefully. The exam won't be over for another hour.
14. Reading a book is a good way to relax and take your mind [out / of / off] things.

15. What you are saying [takes time / makes sense / takes place], but I don't think I agree.

16. The film festival will take [part / place / it's time] at the Old Vic theatre.

17. Harry takes football very [seriously / for granted / the wrong way]; he never misses training and goes to bed early as he is playing a match the next day.

18. Do you [have / take / make] what it takes to be a good teacher? It's not as easy as it seems.

19. Carl has many interests, such as [climate / rest / gardening], reading and writing poetry.

20. Olivia took [it easy / control of / her time] the project, decided what each person would do and made sure we finished on time.