

A decorative border surrounds the page, featuring a variety of colorful flowers including red, purple, yellow, and blue blossoms, along with green leaves and small red berries. The border is composed of repeating floral motifs that frame the central writing area.

Writing-13

Think that you can change one thing in the year 2021. What would you change?

A series of horizontal dashed orange lines for writing, consisting of 12 lines in total, providing space for the student's response.