

p. 92-93

1. What does this red [monitor / button / mouse] on the keyboard do?
2. I like all kinds of music, [in particular / quite the opposite / turn into] pop music.
3. Alex [was in need of / turned it into/ came up with] a great plan on how to solve this problem.
4. This problem is [notified / tricky / labeled] and should be dealt with very carefully.
5. – Let me show you my new mobile phone. – Another one? Oh, [I can't be bothered / it's out of the ordinary / in particular].
6. Ian has stuck a [label / setting / pot] on his water bottle so that everyone knows whose it is.
7. She [advised / set / notified] me to visit a doctor.
8. Nobody can [advise / deny / get on with] that traffic problems in the city have increased recently.
9. The battery [denies / pots / stores] the electricity the solar panel makes during the day to be used when needed.
10. She [apologised / monitored / got on with] for her bad cooking.
11. Ted received a [notification / system / click] that he had forgotten to pay his electricity bill.
12. They use advertisements to inform the [public / carpet / system] about road safety.
13. I have switched off my phone and asked my family not to interrupt me, so I can [come up with / get on with / put money into] my project and finish it before Monday.

14. Stuart is thinking of [making / having / turning] his garage into a bedroom.
15. The [monitor / mouse / judge] seemed to like Laura's design. I hope she wins.
16. I'm bored of the same things. Let's try something [out of the ordinary / science fair / quite the opposite] this weekend.
17. I've put a bigger [store / label / pot] for the plant in the living room, because the old one is too small.
18. I'm [bothered / quite the opposite / in need of] some peace and quiet.
19. Keeping a journal while you're on a diet helps you [advise / monitor / store] what you eat and how much exercise you get.
20. Do you think that cars will be [powered / monitored / labeled] by electricity in the future?