p. 100-101

1. What really [scans / believes / annoys] me about this place is the weather. It's awful!

2. Stewart felt [awareness / loneliness / disorganised] when he moved to the city, because he was far away from his friends and family.

3. Paul was filled with [depth / necessity / anger] at the way he had been treated.

4. My English teacher [doubts / believes / dies] that I will pass my proficiency exam.

5. Harry felt a sudden [weakness / awareness / necessity] in his legs and tried to sit down.

6. Charlie is a very [disorganised / annoyed / fearful] person, so I doubt he'll get the job as a cabin attendant.

7. Can I [scan / repair / anger] my passport and email it to you?

8. The [similarity / necessity / sadness] between the original and the copy is remarkable.

9. The [popularity / necessity / doubt] of employing new teaching staff at our school is obvious.

10. The new President has gained widespread [anger / workshop / popularity].

11. It is important to increase the public's [loneliness / popularity / awareness] of the problems our planet is facing.

12. – So what is the [anger / scan / depth] of the well? –I think it's 20m.

13. It is my [spill / consequence / belief] that life exists on other planets.

14. Frank's grandfather [died / doubted / disorganised] at the age of 90.

15. I found the writing [workshop / depth / similarity] really useful.

16. I bought a [calendar / depth / darkness], so I don't forget what I have to do.

17. I have a(n) [awareness / necessity / appointment] with the doctor today.

18. She felt great [awareness / sadness / depth] when she found out she had failed the test.

19. It took a while for our eyes to get used to the [appointment / loneliness / darkness].

20. People have the [workshop / capability / belief] to learn many languages.