

p. 102-103

1. Without [calendar / doubt / scan], history is one of my favourite subjects.
2. Students learn to [interact / connect / annoy] with each other and express themselves.
3. It's not my fault Rob failed the exam. [For instance / In other words / For one thing], I lent him my history book and for another, I helped him revise.
4. Jane tries to [interact / keep in touch with / snap out of] her friends from university.
5. In this country children learn about road safety from an early age. [Therefore / However / But], they become better drivers in the future.
6. Success in business often requires [teamwork / workout / workshop], with all employees working together towards a goal.
7. [Misinformed / Limitless / Technological] development has made our lives much easier.
8. The information he gave us about the house was [limit / false / misinformed].
9. The Internet is probably one of the most [misinformed / significant / affected] inventions of the previous century.
10. Our restaurant offers a wide variety of vegetarian and non-vegetarian courses, to [spread / source / satisfy] the needs of all customers.
11. Jane ate too much at lunch. [However / As a consequence / And then], his stomach hurts.
12. Bad eating habits [affect / satisfy / require] your life.
13. We need to [limit / affect / satisfy] our use of water in the summer.
14. The idea [went on / spread / sourced] from one part of the world to the other.

15. The Internet is a great [anger / depth / source] of information.

16. I'm afraid you've been [attached / astonished / misinformed]. Your flight does not leave for another 5 hours.

17. There was loud music coming from the neighbour's house, because there was a party [taking part / going on / keeping up].

18. Karen didn't sleep last night. [Moreover / Furthermore / For this reason], she is tired at work today.

19. By using social media people can easily look up someone's profile. [As a consequence / In this way / On the one hand], many people find old friends from long ago.

20. Even though I no longer live in Cardiff, I try to keep [in touch / up-to-date / walking] with my team's latest news.