

p. 106-107

1. People's happiness is affected by many [chemicals / poses / individuals] in their brain.
2. Do you also get the [impression / insecurity / power] that Mary is not as friendly as she used to be?
3. The ability to speak a foreign language is a very useful [power / pose / tool] for a journalist.
4. Ian believes that he has the [pose / power / impression] to change the world.
5. He [lowered / lacked / spoke out] interest in his lessons and that is the reason he didn't do well in the exams.
6. As a teenager, John was very [powerless / individual / insecure] about his height. He thought he was too short.
7. The model's [tools / pose / angle / strength] was almost the same in every photograph.
8. I don't think we should [strengthen / lower / power] our standards just because our competitors have done so.
9. Each [impression / individual / insecurity] has different qualities.
10. Confident people who believe in themselves feel comfortable [speaking out / staying up / strengthening] if they believe something is unfair.
11. Walt said that Gus started the argument, but I think it was [powerless / as tough / the other way round].
12. After Steven lost his job, he had no confidence and felt [fearless / powerless / secure] to do things that he normally found easy.

13. I can't [speak out / lower / stay up] late tonight because I have school tomorrow.
14. Public speaking seems to come [truly / widely / naturally] to Stacey. She is comfortable and confident talking in front of many people.
15. Are you [speaking out / implying / strengthening] that I stole your wallet?
16. Our teacher often asks us to read [out loud / out / on].
17. Let's look at this from a different [tool / lack / angle]. I'm sure we'll find an answer.
18. Bob goes to the gym every day because he wants to [lengthen / widen / strengthen] his legs.
19. Nathan has worked as a newspaper photographer for 10 years and staying calm in dangerous situations is now [first / second / natural] nature to him.
20. The colour of the desk changed [in years / over time / out loud].