

1. I don't [misplace / disobey / approve] of TV programmes featuring so much violence.
2. Fixing this boat is [hopeless / careless / fearless]. It'll never float.
3. The lovely photos on the Internet [disobeyed / misled / misspelled] us into thinking that our stay at that awful hotel would be pleasant.
4. You [misbehaved / misspelled / misunderstood] my name. It's two T's not one.
5. Sean [misspelled / believed / disobeyed] the school rules and was punished.
6. We were [misinformed / disobeyed / careless] by the website.
7. Mark [placed / obeyed / approved] the bookcase next to the sofa.
8. I don't want you to [misspell / cheat / misunderstand] what I'm saying.
9. The teacher was angry at the class when the student's [were worthless / misbehaved / disapproved].
10. It is important to [disobey / obey / approve] your parents.
11. If you [keep on / result of / keep still] practicing like that, I'm sure you'll do well in the competition.
12. Garry battled to keep [up with / off / on] the leaders of the race.
13. Will you keep [your promise / an eye on / me informed] your brother while I go out?
14. You can trust Manuel. I have known him for many years and he always keeps [back his tears / it to himself / his promise].
15. Tim is writing his final exams and is very [careless / stressed / beat].

16. Keep [of / off / up with] the grass, boys!

17. Working really hard and having a lot of money, without any time to spend with friends and doing what you enjoy, leads to a [dishonest / restless / meaningless] life.

18. It's not fair to [keep still / misplace / cheat] when you play board games.

19. Jolene felt [misbehaved / restless / meaningful] and couldn't concentrate in class, because she couldn't stop thinking about the party the next day.

20. Penny took up acting and after much practice and many performances, she [beat / cheated / kept off] her fear of speaking in public.