p. 110-111

1. My best friends [stands by / goes through / turns to] me whenever I need them.

2. She's [stood by / gone through / kept still] a lot over the past year, but she's fine now.

3. I always [turn to / keep up / approve] my elder brother when I have a problem.

4. You must help me with the project, Dylan, I'm [counting / believing / admitting] on you.

5. I get [involved / tempered / depressed] when it's raining.

6. She didn't want to [admit / disapprove / warn] that her mother was right after all.

7. I hate it when my mother [nags / warns / cheats] me about my homework.

8. When I had problems at school, I shut myself [up / off / of] from my friends and I didn't talk to anyone, which didn't help.

9. Try reading a book. It helped me when I was in a similar situation, so it might [make up / be coming up / be of some help] to you.

10. My friends [warned / wandered / got over] me about the bad weather, but I didn't take a coat.

11. Nathan decided to [count on / make up / get involved] in mores sports at school to improve his physical fitness.

12. –I have a history exam tomorrow. –If I were [in your shoes / extracurricular activity / bad-tempered], I'd start studying!

13. Look on the [bright side / angle / wide side], Mark. You didn't get the job, but you made a new friend.

14. Joan can't [make up / count on / get over] the fact that she didn't pass the exams.

15. Some exciting concerts are [counting on / keeping up / coming up] in the music festival, so we should get some tickets.

16. Jerry is [addicted to / counting on / in my shoes] coffee. He drinks at least 5 cups every day!

17. Mary and Roger have [nagged / fallen out / fallen off] with each other over his selfish behaviour.

18. Carol and Jane have [made up / fallen out / addicted to] after their fight last week.

19. Ernest [broke up / broke down / broke] when he heard that his mother was in hospital.

20. Ron gets very [addicted / bad-tempered / warned] when his brother borrows his things without asking.