

I. Active and passive forms – gerunds and infinitives

TV reporter Kitty Beamish is interviewing some workers who are protesting about not being paid enough.

Complete the workers' statements. Put in an active or passive to-infinitive or ing-form.
Pay attention if the Subject does the action or action is done to the Subject.

► We want to be paid (pay) better wages.

- 1 We don't enjoy (use) as cheap labour.
- 2 We're tired of(work) for low wages.
- 3 We expect (treat) like human beings.
- 4 We don't want (give) up all our rights.
- 5 We hope (invite) to a meeting with the management.
- 6 We insist on(take) seriously.

II. Active and passive forms – Finish the dialogue between Jessica and Andrew

Put in an active or passive to-infinitive or ing-form.

Jessica: Are you going to be busy today?

Andrew: Well, I've got a few things (►) to do (do).

I've got an essay (1).....(write). And this room ought

(2)..... (tidy) up a bit.

This carpet needs (3).....(hoover).

Jessica: I've got some jobs (4) (do), too.

Most of my clothes need (5) (iron).

And I've got my project (6) (finish) off.

I'm worried about (7) (miss) the deadline.

It has (8) (hand) in tomorrow.

I don't want (9)..... (be) late with it.

Andrew: I don't remember (10)..... (tell) when the project was due in.

Jessica: Why? Haven't you done it yet?

Andrew: Oh, yes. I handed it in, ages ago.