

Week 9

Primary 5/6

The Write Tribe

STORY PLANNING: SATISFYING CONCLUSIONS

PART 1

4 important components of
CONCLUSION

LOGICAL SOLUTION

SHOW FEELINGS

LESSON LEARNT

PROVERB

Click the LOGICAL SOLUTION to the story scenario below

SCENARIO: Marty was caught cheating on his math test.

A.

The teacher congratulated
Marty and gave him a medal.

B.

Marty was sent to the Principal's office and was
suspended from school.

SCENARIO: After months of practice, Marty became first in the running competition.

A.

Marty was sent to the Principal's office and was
suspended from school.

B.

The teacher congratulated
Marty and gave him a
medal.

SCENARIO A: Playing with matches had gone out of hand and now the entire house is on fire.

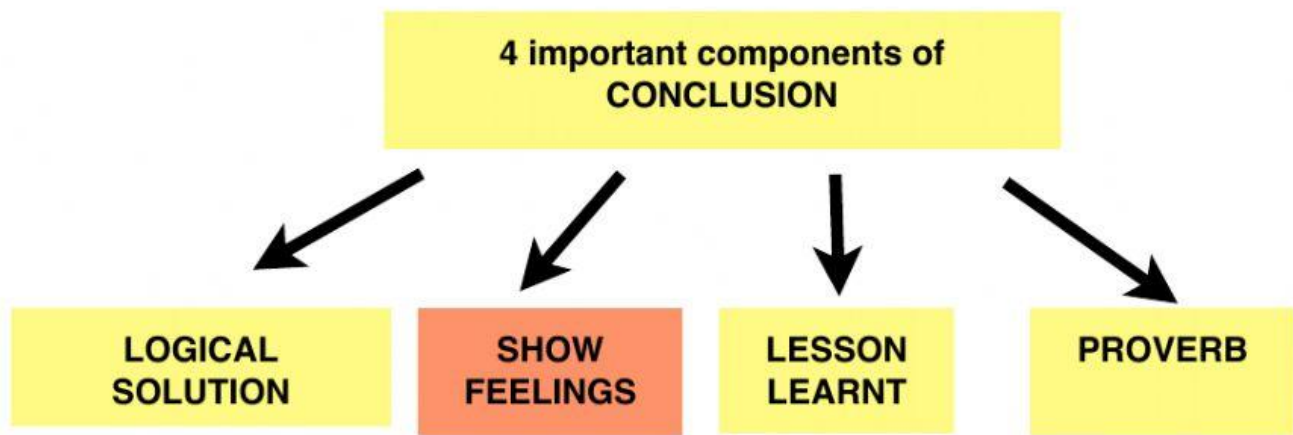

Fire

Write a logical solution

SCENARIO: You were caught shoplifting by the security guard.

Shoplifting

Write a logical solution

SCENARIO: Marty was caught cheating on his math test.

CONCLUSION	Solution	Marty was sent to the Principal's office and was suspended from school.
	Emotional adjective	Marty felt
	Show feelings

SCENARIO: After months of practice, Marty became first in the running competition.

CONCLUSION	Solution	The teacher congratulated Marty and gave him a medal.
	Emotional adjective	Marty felt
	Show feelings

SCENARIO: Playing with matches had gone out of hand and now the entire house is on fire.

CONCLUSION	Solution	Fortunately, the firefighters arrived in the nick of time to put out the fire.
	Emotional adjective	Mary felt
	Show feelings

4 important components of CONCLUSION

LOGICAL
SOLUTION

SHOW
FEELINGS

LESSON
LEARNT

PROVERB

ACTION VERBS FOR LESSON LEARNT

Characters usually give up their bad character traits at this point as it was the root cause of their problem

1. I vowed never to dilly-dally again. From that day on, I learned to manage time better.
2. I swore to myself to never be chicken-hearted again. That day onwards, I readily faced challenges.
3. Sara made a firm decision to ditch her devil-may-care attitude. Instead, she learned to take precautions.
4. Garfield made a decision to stop being big-headed. From that day on, he became more humble.
5. Padma solemnly promised to stop being a tattletale. Ever since that incident, he never spilled the beans ever again!
6. Ali made a resolution that being hot-headed landed him in hot soup. After that incident, he never acted rashly
7. John pledged to himself he would never be bothered if someone ever calls him a stutterer again! From that moment, John accepted himself, flaws and all!
8. Gary assured his mother he would never talk to strangers again.

Example: Jack swore never to lie to his mother again! He turned over a new leaf and gave up being a compulsive liar. From that day on, he never even told a white lie!

1. SCENARIO: You were caught shoplifting by the security guard.

ACTION VERB: vowed

2. SCENARIO: Playing with matches had gone out of hand and now the entire house is on fire.

ACTION VERB: swore

3. SCENARIO: Hot-headed John discovered that he had hastily accused his classmate of stealing his wallet.

ACTION VERB: made a firm decision

4. SCENARIO: Padma, the tattletale, regretted ruining the surprise birthday party for his Dad, after he spilled the beans.

ACTION VERB: solemnly promised

5. SCENARIO: You were caught cheating in your examination.

ACTION VERB: pledged

6. SCENARIO: You are finally reunited with your mother after being lost in the mall.

ACTION VERB: assured

7. SCENARIO: You nearly drowned after being challenged to swim to the deep end of a lake.

ACTION VERB: made a resolution

