Fiction	Mystery	Reference	Myth
Realistic Fiction	Nonfiction	Newspaper	Fables
Historical Fiction	Biography	Poetry	Tall Tales
Science Fiction	Autobiography	Play
Fantasy	Information	Fairy Tales

Read each clue. Drag the type of Genre to the matching clue.

1. A daily or weekly publication of current events. _____
2. Information sources such as encyclopedias, dictionaries, or atlases._____
3. Stories that usually take place in the future with some cool technology or inventions._____
4. Stories that have made-up characters but takes place during an event in history._____
5. Stories where events, people, and places may be real but the actual story is not real. _____
6. Stories that can include talking animals, magic, or take place in worlds where magical things happen. _____
7. A fictional story with characters who try to solve a crime or an unexplained event._____
8. A story for stage performance by actors. _____
9. A book or article that introduces the reader to various topical material and "how to" information on subjects such as science, art, and specific craft projects._____
10. A person's life story written by another person. _____
11. A person's life story written by himself or herself. _____
12. Words that are arranged in patterns, often rhymes and written in an imaginative style._____
13. A story with unbelievable elements, told as if it were true and factual. Stories like these are often exaggerations of actual events. _____
14. A short story where characters are often animals that talk and always end with a lesson or a moral. _____
15. A story that is handed down by word of mouth and usually explains something based on the beginning of the world. Characters usually include some gods or goddesses. _____
16. A children's story about magical and imaginary beings and lands. _____
17. Any writing that is based on true events or information. _____
18. Any writing that contains any part that is made up. _____

liveworksheets.com