CONDITIONAL SENTENCES

USE THE VERBS IN THE CORRECT TENSE FORMS

1. What will you do if nobody _____ (come) to meet you at the airport?
2. If the weather doesn't improve, we _____ (go) to the beach.
3. Sarah would have had to pay the fine if she _____ (return) the books on time.
4. There would be fewer cases of lung cancer if people _____ (not+smoke) so much.
5. If my boss _____(not+pay) me today, I won't go on a trip.
6. I won't call you unless something very important _____ (happen).
7. If I _____(be) as good as Helen at maths, I would be much more confident about tomorrow's exam.
8. If you had not told John how to get to you, he _____ (not+ find) your house.
9. If my neighbours make so much noise, _____ (call) the police.
10. If he were a better runner, we _____ (accept) him into our team.
11. What _____(you/do) if you had missed the last train?
12. If the tourists _____(wait) another five minutes, they would have seen the President.
13. If he _____(spend) more time exercising, he won't be ill so often.
14. The workers wouldn't have destroyed the unique painting if they _____ _____ (pay) more attention to what the foreman said.
15. If my grandpa _____ (be) thirty years younger, he _____ _____(choose) the same profession.
16. If I _____(must) to stay overnight, I would prefer a B&B.
17. If parents don't pay attention to their children's eating habits, their children _____ (become) overweight.
18. What _____ (you/ spend) the money on if you had won at the lottery?
19. If George _____(practise) more, he will be asked to perform at the school party.
20. My granny _____(marry) grandpa if they hadn't fallen in love at first sight.