Case Study A:

Mrs. Troxel asked her fifth-grade class to silently follow her down the hall to the library. She kept hearing giggling behind her, but she could not tell who it was. Mrs. Troxel stopped twice to ask who was talking, but no one answered. The students were late for library time because of the disruption.

Case Study B:

Which reference fits?

On the way to school, Mike overheard Ben telling some other boys that he had lost his baseball mitt. While Mike was on the playground at recess, he found a baseball mitt in the bushes. There was no name written on it. Mike thought, "This could be Ben's baseball mitt, but it does not have a name on it. I think I will keep it."
