

How to be a Good and a Global Citizen

A Choose True or False. Justify your answers in the text.

1 Inactive members of a community are considered to be good citizens. TRUE FALSE

2 Good citizens are very proud of their country's history and culture and try hard to improve the place where they live. TRUE FALSE

3 Voluntary organizations advise adult people who are in a very difficult and sometimes dangerous situation. TRUE FALSE

4 A good citizen cannot be indifferent to their community problems. TRUE FALSE

5 If you want to donate money, you can only donate it to your local organization.
TRUE FALSE

6 Preserving one's own history and culture is vital in today's interconnected world.
TRUE FALSE

7 Studying one's own history as well as other cultures can help citizens keep up with current global events. TRUE FALSE

8 Learning a foreign language can be an easy task to do. TRUE FALSE

9 Learning another language gives people the chance to develop respect and understanding towards other cultures as well as to form bonds with people worldwide.
TRUE FALSE