Helen's parents bought a new house a few months ago. In their last week at their old house, the family put all their , lamps and other things into big boxes. Then on their last day in the old house, two men came and took all the things, like the beds, out of the rooms, down the , out of the house and into a big lorry outside. Then the family stood for a minute in their old house and said goodbye to it. After that, they behind the lorry to their new house. It wasn't far because it was in the same . When they arrived, the men opened the doors of the lorry and Helen's dad walked up to the house. He put his hand in his pocket and said, "Oh no! I've the key! It's by the window in our old house!" Helen laughed. "You always put your keys there!" "Yes!" Helen's Dad answered, "but now I must find a new place for them!"
