MY NEW SCHOOL

When I saw my new school, it really didn't seem to be "new". It was a very old building which looked almost 1 . . . . . I hoped I would 2 .. . . . . from a high school in Warsaw where I had plenty of friends, and that the building wouldn't look as if it were going to fall apart in a few days.

Unfortunately, my father got a better 3 . . .. . . in a small town. In fact, he works for the same company now, but its new branch had just 4.. . . . . up in this small town, and my father became the boss of the 5 . .. . branch. The day I learnt we had to move, I got so angry that I quarrelled with my parents and said a few rude words. My father got angry too. He told me not to answer 6 . . . . when I talked with them, but to calm down and consider all the pros and cons. Well, to 7. . . . the truth, I could see only one advantage – up to then my father's salary hadn't been very high, and we couldn't 8. . . . . some things, for example holidays abroad. Now, my father has promised that we'll spend our next holiday in Greece, Turkey or Egypt.
