The first reason is people love their pets and are happier at work when their dogs are with them. Happy workers do their work better. Secondly, other workers can play with a dog and enjoy a few minutes with it. This helps them relax and feel better. Thirdly, people get up and move around more when there are dogs in the office. Workers are healthier if they walk around a few times every day. Fourthly, dog owners can stay late at work. They don't have to go home early to feed their pet and take it for a walk.

At my workplace, every day is "Take Your Dog to Work Day" because dogs are always welcome. I bring my dog Zuzu to work with me all the time. I work for a small company but we have five dogs in the office. Zuzu and I love going to work every day.

People can learn a lot from dogs. Dogs are loyal, patient and accept people as they are. Dogs also know how to say thank you when people do something nice for them. They wag their tails or lick our faces to show they are thankful. Dogs can teach us to thank people who do something nice for us.
