

Pirates, mermaids, dolphins and sharks

Name: _____

I. Look at the pictures and choose the correct sentence.

1	There is one mermaid.	There isn't one mermaid.	There are two mermaids.
2	There are four dolphins.	There are five dolphins.	There aren't five dolphins.
3	There is one shark.	There are three sharks.	There are two sharks.
4	There are four pirates.	There aren't three pirates.	There are three pirates.

II. Describe. What can you see? Use there is or there are.

