Hi,

I'm happy to hear you've managed to get a few days off. If you haven't got other plans, would you like to stay at my place next weekend?

While you're here, the environmental club I belong to needs some volunteers. We could either help pick up litter along the river or plant trees in a park for a few hours. Which activity would you prefer? We have to wear old clothes and boots for these kinds of activities. I have an extra pair of boots if you want to borrow them.

What else do you want to do during your stay?

All the best,

Freddie
