

Reporting clauses

In reporting clauses, verbs such as admit, agree, announce, comment, complain, confess, disclose, explain, inform, and reveal are frequently followed by an indirect object. In this case, that should be retained for clarity.

Several people agreed with me that logic, not superstition, is the best way to make decisions.
Max explained to the teacher that a black cat never means bad luck in his country.

The following nouns are also often used in reporting clauses. Here, too, that is helpful in making the meaning clear and should be retained.

accusation	assertion	comment	explanation	response
argument	claim	decision	remark	suggestion

Bill made the assertion that he'd have no luck at all if it weren't for bad luck.

Liliana repeated her argument that only foolish people believe in magic.

The class rejected Niran's suggestion that we cancel class on Friday the 13th.
