

Insert the right modal verb.

They _____ go to the party last night. They were punished.

Listen! You really _____ see this film. It's really good.

_____ I always _____ wash my hands before dinner? Yes.

You _____ pay the entrance fee. It's free for students.

We _____ feed our pets three times a day.

_____ I go to the toilet, please? Yes, of course.

We _____ steal or lie.

Children in Slovenia _____ wear uniforms at school.

I _____ cook dinner tomorrow. We're going to the restaurant.

She _____ get up early yesterday. Her job started at 6 o'clock.

He was very smart. He _____ read and write when he was 4 years old.

Where _____ we buy newspapers? At the newsagent's.

We _____ drive on the right side in Slovenia.

It was Sunday yesterday. We _____ go to school. We _____ stay at home.

Put into the passive voice.

She'll Hoover her flat tomorrow. _____

People drive fast cars on this road. _____

Somebody has mended my old watch. _____

People didn't use computers a hundred years ago. _____

They've always ridden horses on their ranch. _____

A big dog bit my friend last summer. _____

People usually shake hands after every meeting. _____

Put the verbs in brackets into the correct tense.

My daughter _____ (vacuum) her flat when her friend _____
(call) her on the phone.

If we _____ (improve) our English, we _____ (get) better grades.
_____ (he/ever/climb) a tree?

If my dad _____ (earn) a lot of money, he _____ (buy) me a new computer.

I think I _____ (have) a steak and chips, please.

If he _____ (not read) the instructions, he _____ (not can) turn it on.

I really _____ (admire) my mum. She's a very special lady.

He _____ (go) to the library, _____ (borrow) a book and _____ (leave).

If she _____ (be) my sister, I _____ (encourage) her to study more.

Some students _____ (already/submit) their papers.

We _____ (have) a party on Saturday. We _____ (celebrate) my grandparents' 50th wedding anniversary. Will you come?

What _____ (you/do)? I _____ (cut) the onions.

If you _____ (tell) me a funny story, I _____ (laugh).

Look. Somebody _____ (break) a plate. Be careful, don't step on it.

Have you got any plans for next week? Yes, I _____ (work) on my paper.

_____ (you/solve) the puzzle, yet?

If he _____ (be) late, he _____ (be) punished.