

Let's celebrate St Patrick's Day !

[→ Je découvre la civilisation des pays anglophones .]

Le 17 mars , les Irlandais fêtent la Saint Patrick pour honorer le missionnaire qui a converti l'Irlande au christianisme. Que dirais-tu de partir à la découverte de l'Irlande et de cette grande fête ?

let's enjoy the craic ! [let's have some fun !]

STEP 1

IRISH SYMBOLS

- je peux comprendre un texte simple sur les symboles de l'Irlande
- je peux repérer les informations principales .

Marion is telling you about Irish symbols

I come from Ireland. It's a small country in the west of Europe.
It's just next to the United Kingdom.

The Irish flag has three colors: green, white and orange. You often see the Irish flag above important buildings like the government building, or the town hall.

One of the most important symbols of Ireland is the shamrock.
The shamrock is a small green plant with three leaves, so the shamrock looks like a four leaf clover, but it only has three leaves, and they look like three hearts joined together.

In Ireland, the countryside is very beautiful. We have lots of lakes, mountains, beaches, and cliffs along the west coast, especially. Some of these cliffs are among the highest in Europe.

All around Ireland you can see lots of castles. We have a very long history in Ireland and there are many castles all over. Sometimes people still live in these castles. Sometimes, they are only for tourists to visit.

1 - READ paragraph 1 and COLOUR green the Republic of Ireland and blue the United Kingdom.

2 - LABEL the pictures about the symbols of Ireland .

3 - COLOUR green the Republic of Ireland and orange Northern Ireland .

The Island of Ireland

The Island of Ireland is divided in 2 parts :

- Northern Ireland is part of the United Kingdom . It is protestant.

- The Republic of Ireland is independent and it is catholic.

4 - LOOK at the map and PICK OUT information

STEP 2

Saint Patrick's festival

St Patrick's Day is celebrated in Ireland and Irish people wear * green clothes on March 17th. Even their cookies are green on that day . It is also  celebrated in New York where many Irish immigrants arrived in the 19th century  . For the occasion , the Hudson River is dyed * green .

(*)(to) wear : porter (also : aussi () century : siècle () (to) dye : teindre

→ RIGHT (vrai) or WRONG (faux) ?

a) St Patrick's Day is only celebrated in Ireland . R W

b) For St Patrick's Day people wear yellow clothes R W

c) St Patrick's Day is on March 19th R W

d) In New York , The Hudson River is dyed green R W

A Dublin , les célébrations de la ST Patrick durent 5 jours . Plusieurs événements sont organisés dans les rues et dans les pubs : des dances folkloriques irlandaises , des défilés costumés , des chasses au trésor , des théâtres et des chants de rue. . Lors de ces défilés on peut apercevoir des leprechauns , ces petits personnages légendaires très farceurs .

→ READ the text .

LEPRECHAUNS are a type of fairy in the Irish folklore. There are only male Leprechauns , no female . Leprechauns are shoemakers . They are very mischievous* because they hide gold coins in a pot at the end of a rainbow.

mischievous: espiègle , farceur  (to) hide : cacher

STEP 3

The story of Saint Patrick

→ READ the story

A long time ago ,
there was a priest
called Patrick

There were many snakes in Ireland and the Irish people were scared of them

a priest : un prêtre

scared : effrayé

So , Patrick took a drum and played it loudly and all the snakes went away

The Irish people were so happy that they called Patrick a "Saint" . Today , you can't find any snakes in Ireland .

loudly : très fort (son) (to) go away : s'enfuir , partir (went away)

(to) find : trouver

→ EXPLAIN in French what you have understood.

→ more information in French about the story .

Saint Patrick a réellement existé. C'était un prêtre qui a vécu au V^e siècle après Jésus Christ. Il est né en 385 ap J.C et serait mort le 17 mars 461 ap J.C. C'est donc pour cela que les Irlandais du monde entier le célèbrent ce jour là. Saint Patrick n'est pas né en Irlande mais en Grande Bretagne.

A l'âge de 16 ans il fut capturé et vendu en tant qu'esclave dans une ferme en Irlande. Il y passera six années de sa vie et travaillera en tant que berger avant de s'enfuir. Il fuira l'Irlande et se réfugiera dans un monastère où il deviendra prêtre. Il revient en Irlande avec une mission en tête : convertir les Irlandais au catholicisme. Il fera construire des écoles, des églises et des monastères à travers tout le pays.

Pour expliquer à ses fidèles la notion de la Sainte Trinité, St Patrick utilise un trèfle à trois feuilles. La Sainte Trinité renvoie à l'idée qu'il y 3 personnes pour désigner Dieu : le Père, le Fils et le Saint Esprit. Pourquoi le trèfle à trois feuilles ? Tout simplement car il pousse partout en Irlande ! Depuis ce jour, le trèfle à trois feuilles est devenu le symbole de cette fête.
