

Parts of Speech
Pronouns

Some words take the place of nouns. These are called pronouns.

Examples:	Sentence with noun	Sentence with pronoun
	The girl played the piano.	She played the piano.
	The pronoun "she" takes the place of "the girl".
	The boy liked music.	He liked music.
	The pronoun "he" takes the place of "the boy".
	The ball bounced on the floor.	It bounced on the floor.
	The pronoun "it" takes the place of "the ball".

Use a pronoun in the sentence. Words to use: she, he, and it. Use a capital letter.

1. My brother was sick. _____ had the flu.
2. Mom is running errands. _____ will be home at noon.
3. My dad coaches baseball. _____ is the coach of my sister's team.
4. My aunt lives in Canada. _____ wants us to visit her this summer.
5. My uncle likes to waterski. _____ will take me on his boat this Friday.
6. Our bike trip was really fun! _____ was fun for the whole family.
7. Soon summer will be here. _____ is my favorite season of the year!
8. My mom bought a bag from the store. _____ was a cool bag!
9. Paul's spelling test is today. _____ is very nervous.
10. Mary likes to play the piano. _____ is very good.
11. The birds is flying high. _____ will be home soon.
12. Mike plays basketball. _____ will be joining them.
13. Ms. Smith teaches creative writing. _____ loves this subject.