

A Complete the sentences with the words in the box. In pairs, think of some other examples of behaviour which could be described with these adjectives.

clumsy courageous disloyal foolish hospitable over-sensitive pushy romantic

- 1 Dan made his girlfriend a heart-shaped cake for Valentine's Day. He was _____.
- 2 Sonya and Ethan put me up in their home for a week and made me dinner every evening. They were _____.
- 3 Tom paid £2,000 for a second-hand car, but it's only worth £1,000. He was _____.
- 4 Kylie promised not to tell anyone my secret, but she told everyone. She was _____.
- 5 Jake went back into the burning building to rescue his dog. He was _____.
- 6 Anya's parents insisted that she apply to university, even though she didn't want to. They were _____.
- 7 I made a joke about Harry's hair and he started to cry. He was _____.
- 8 Susie tripped over the dog and dropped all the plates on the floor. She was _____.

B Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first.

- 1 They forgot their mum's birthday. They were thoughtless.
It _____ was thoughtless of them to forget _____ their mum's birthday.
- 2 He took his grandmother some flowers. That was considerate.
That _____ his grandmother some flowers.
- 3 She didn't confess to her mistake. She was cowardly.
It _____ to her mistake.
- 4 We might drop out of university. That would be short-sighted.
It _____ out of university.
- 5 You didn't believe that the politician was being sincere. You were cynical.
It _____ that the politician was being sincere.
- 6 I scratched my brother's car on purpose. That was spiteful.
That _____ my brother's car on purpose.