Written Composition

Interesting Introductory Paragraphs.

The purpose of the introduction is to spark the interest of the reader. The introductory paragraph should have three parts:

1. The Hook (attention grabber)
2. The Background Information (detail sentences)
3. The Thesis Statement (main idea)

Choose a topic below and create a paragraph. Be sure to:

- Include all three parts of a paragraph in your paragraph.
- Write sentences that have a complete thought. (Do not write more than 7 sentences as this is ONLY the introduction)
- Check for proper spelling, capitalization, and punctuations.
