

BUILDINGS THAT TELL STORIES

Manchester is a big city in the north of England. It's famous for great bands and for two top football teams, Manchester United and Manchester City.

I. WHAT'S MANCHESTER FAMOUS FOR?

_____

It's got exciting new buildings, including TV studios and this modern tower which is a hotel. It's the tallest building in the city! These new TV studios are near Manchester United's football stadium.

2. WHICH TWO NEW BUILDINGS DOES THE TEXT MENTION?

_____

It's important to build new buildings, but we must also look after historical buildings because they teach us about our past.

3. WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO LOOK AFTER HISTORICAL BUILDINGS?

_____

In the 1800s, thousands of people come to work in the city. Men, women and children work in the cotton industry.

4. WHAT INDUSTRY DID PEOPLE COME TO MANCHESTER TO WORK IN?

_____

The people of Manchester decide to build a library because they think learning is important, and a theatre because they think culture is important, too.

5. WHY DO THEY BUILD A LIBRARY IN THE 1800s?

_____