

Instructions: Read the sentence. Drag and drop the letter of the picture beside the sentence describing it.

|  |                             |
|--|-----------------------------|
|  | 1. It is a small blue jug.  |
|  | 2. Vin unzips his bag.      |
|  | 3. The lad is on a toy jet. |
|  | 4. The box has a rip.       |
|  | 5. The vet has a sick pup.  |

|                                                                                          |                                                                                          |                                                                                            |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| J | V | W |
| X | Y | Z |