

Fill in the gaps with 's (=is) or are.

Singular

There a big new shopping centre.

There an airport in Bristol.

Plural

There five theatres.

There some very nice parks.

There a lot of old buildings.

Look at these sentences about Bath. Fill in the gaps with 's or are.

- 1 There a beautiful river.
- 2 There two cinemas.
- 3 There a bus station.
- 4 There some hot springs.
- 5 There a nice café near the station.
- 6 There two five-star hotels.
- 7 There a famous restaurant called Sally Lunn's.
- 8 There a lot of trains to London every day.

Listen and check. Notice how we say there's and there are. CD2, 43(6,3)

There's /ðeəz/ a beautiful river.
There are /ðeərə/ two cinemas.

Choose the correct words.

1. There's a/some station.
2. There are a/three parks.
3. There are a/some good museums.
4. There's a/some bus station.
5. There are some/a beautiful buildings.
6. There's a/an old theatre.
7. There are an/a lot of very good restaurants.
8. There are some/a nice hotels.

Write sentences with 'there is' and 'there are' about a town or city in your country.