

Write an answer to the definition

1. a person who is on trial for committing a crime.
2. a decision made in court, stating if somebody is guilty or not.
3. a person in court who can decide how criminals should be punished.
4. to take somebody to the police station because the police believe they may be guilty of a crime.
5. to ask somebody about something officially.
6. the information that is used in court to try and prove something.
7. the opposite of innocent.
8. to decide and state in court that somebody is not guilty of a crime.

INSERT THE MISSING WORD

1. Dan was caught trying tococaine into the country. He is currently serving a 5-year prison
2. This town is getting really dangerous. Yesterday, I wasin broad daylight. The attacker had a knife and took all my money.
3. The policelooking for the person responsible for burning down the church. They are confident they will catch the
4. Hold on to your wallet. There are a lot ofon the train.
5. Joe was on his way to work. Thecontacted his wife and demanded a ransom of $1 million.
6. James was found guilty of It was obvious that he was lying under oath.
7. A broke into my flat while I was at work and stole my entire music collection.
8. Do not try to hide your true income from the government. Taxis a very serious crime.
9. Sandra is trying toTom. She says he has to pay her $1000 or she will tell his wife about his affair.
10. Not seen as a really serious crime as people are seldom injured,is when an individual deliberately takes something from a shop without paying for the goods.