

Work Hard, Play Harder

By Gretchen Wilson

a. Complete the missing words

I work a double-shift on

, I get up before dawn

, pouring coffee

night, I'm tending the bar

Well, when finally rolls around

I call my rough and rowdy and we're honky-tonk loud.

b. Reorganize the letters

I work (rahd), I play (rahdre)

I'm a good-timin', (cAminera) daughter

Redneck, (uebl) collar

And I party down to my last (adlloir)

I work hard, I work hard, I work hard

I (lapy) harder

c. Reorganize the words

I – on – waste – time – my - Now, - don't spray-on - and – tans – Manicures

never – no - And - don't – I – pay - mind

I've worn – To – callouses - on - hands – my – the people – know - You – just – how - can't – that - understand but – clock - I'm - out – first – the - to - in - the – last – pass - to

d. Now look for words/phrases to complete the definitions:

_____ : To work from very early in the morning until very late in the afternoon.

_____ : The moment when the sun comes up.

_____ : Putting liquid in a recipient.

_____ : Arrives / Starts.

_____ : People who are noisy, rough and likely to cause problems.

_____ : A person who works under the sun. Also someone who works very hard.

_____ : Someone who works in the manual industry. A low-hierarchy worker.

_____ : To use time badly.

_____ : To let your boss know that you arrived.

_____ : To faint or to fall asleep.

