

Tony needs a job. Listen to the conversation and check the job he is applying for.

Job advertisement # 1

City Coffee, High Street - four days a week, including weekends, 8:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Job advertisement # 2

BikeLove - sell bicycles and equipment to shops, 40+ hours/week, in our city centre office.

Listen again and answer these questions. Check the best answers.

1. What skills does he need for the job? Check the four skills you hear.

- | | | | |
|--|--|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| <input type="radio"/> give presentations | <input type="radio"/> work with other people | <input type="radio"/> serve customers | <input type="radio"/> speak English |
| <input type="radio"/> use social media | <input type="radio"/> use the cash register | <input type="radio"/> make coffee | <input type="radio"/> write reports |

2. What skills does he have? Check the skills he has.

- | | | | |
|-------------------------------------|---|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| <input type="radio"/> speak English | <input type="radio"/> use the cash register | <input type="radio"/> make coffee | <input type="radio"/> serve customers |
|-------------------------------------|---|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------|

3. Does Tony get the job? Check one.

- | |
|--|
| <input type="radio"/> Yes, he does. The manager asks when he can start. |
| <input type="radio"/> No, he doesn't. The manager thanks him for his time. |

