Simple Present	Present Progressive	Simple Past
Form: He works. He doesn't work. Does he work?	Form: He is working. He isn't working. Is he working?	Form: He worked. He didn't work. Did he work?
Use: regular actions always true facts	Use: actions in progress	Use: finished actions in the past
Signal Words: always, usually, often, sometimes, ... every day, summer, ...	Signal Words: now, at the moment, today, this morning, ... Look! Listen!	Signal Words: yesterday, last year, last months, ... 10 minutes ago

I. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs.
Be careful with negative sentences and questions.

Matt always _____ (sleep) until 9:30 am on Saturday. But yesterday he _____ (not+go) to bed late because he _____ (want) to go fishing with his Dad today. He _____ (get up) at 7 o clock in the morning. His bag _____ (be) already in the car, because they _____ (pack) it last night after they _____ (eat) a large pizza.

Usually Matt _____ (do) his homework on Saturday morning, but now he _____ (look) for his boots. He _____ (not+know) where they _____ (be). He _____ (put) them at the door before he _____ (go) to bed last night. Now his dad _____ (call) from the car.

Dad: "Hurry! I _____ (not+want) to be late! What _____ (you+do)? We never _____ (catch) anything after nine in the morning. You _____ (know) that. _____ (be) you ready now?"

Matt: "I _____ (come)! But I can't _____ (find) my boots anywhere! _____ (you+take) them?

Dad: Don't worry. I _____ (throw) them in the car. But wait, I _____ (can+not) find the worms. Go and ask Mum where they are."

Matt: "_____ (you+know) where our worms are?"

Mum: "Here, they are. ... Eh, Matt, _____ (you+remember) the fish you _____ (catch) the last time you _____ (be) fishing? It _____ (be) a big one. Try to _____ (catch) one again, because today I _____ (make) fish & chips for dinner."

Matt: "That's great, Mum!"

LIVEWORKSHEETS