

Name: _____

Ladyville Technical High School

Class: _____

January ____ 2021

Biology

Fill in the Blank.

1. The waste products formed during metabolism could be _____ if they are allowed to accumulate therefore they need to be removed by _____.
2. The thousands of chemical reactions that occur inside the body is known as _____.
3. Unicellular organisms remove their waste products by means of _____ which is the simplest means of excretion.
4. Excretory organs such as the _____ releases carbon dioxide and water the _____ is for nitrogenous waste and water and the _____ for small amounts of urea, salts and water as a means of _____.
5. Urea is waste nitrogenous material produced by _____ of amino acids in the cells of the _____.
6. In plants the waste substance is primarily _____ produced by photosynthesis and is expelled by the _____ cells which are tiny holes under the leaf.

Section II

Label the diagram below

