

Rosa Parks Rides a Bus

My name is Rosa Parks.
Many years ago, I was riding a bus home from work and something important happened.

1. WHO ARE WE TALKING ABOUT _____?

I was sitting on the bus going home. At the next stop, a white man got on and told me to stand up so he could sit.

2. WHO TOLD ROSA PARKS TO STAND UP SO HE COULD SIT

_____?

Back then, black people had to give up their seats to white people if there were no seats. I was tired and nicely told him, "No".

3. BACK THEN WHAT DID BLACK PEOPLE HAVE TO GIVE UP TO WHITE PEOPLE _____?

The police were called because I broke the law.
The law said I had to give my seat to him, but it was an unfair law. I had to be brave.

4. WHO WAS CALLED WHEN ROSA PARKS WOULD NOT GIVE UP HER SEAT _____?

There were a lot of people who were very unhappy about me being put in jail.
It was time to change
these unfair laws.

5. PEOPLE WERE UNHAPPY ABOUT ROSA PARKS
BEING PUT INTO JAIL, THEY WANTED _____AND
_____.

Black people in Alabama quit riding busses. They said they would no longer ride them until the laws were changed.

6. BLACK PEOPLE QUIT RIDING BUSES UNTIL THE LAWS WERE CHANGED, WHAT STATE DID THEY QUIT RIDING BUSES _____?

When I said I would not give up my seat, I did not know that the Civil Rights Movement was being born.
I am happy I helped change the unfair laws.
